

Administrative Basic Principles of Labor Management Organization for USFJ
Employees, Incorporated Administrative Agency

For our Mission, “Contribution to Peace and Stability”

Our mission is to contribute to maintaining peace and stability of Japan and its surrounding areas by contributing to reinforcement of US-Japan security alliance through securing manpower as required by USFJ.

We administer our organization and tasks to achieve such mission under the following basic principles:

- Properly Perform the Tasks

We make efforts to perform the tasks accurately and steadily in close cooperation with Ministry of Defense and USFJ.

- Consideration for Workers

We firmly support USFJ employees working at USFJ facilities and provide better service.

- Trusted Organization

We make efforts to remain trusted by USFJ, USFJ employees and the public through performing daily tasks.
